

SR DEIRDRE JORDAN INDIGENOUS SCHOLARSHIPS 2022 Information Sheet

In recognition of Sr Deirdre Jordan's outstanding contribution, both locally and nationally, to the promotion of education opportunities for indigenous students, the St Aloysius College Advisory Council is pleased to honour Sr Deirdre Jordan by providing this scholarship opportunity.

Sr Deirdre Jordan AC, MBE is an eminent old scholar and former Principal of St Aloysius College. During her time on the staff of the University of Adelaide she was involved in significant research projects which highlighted future directions in Aboriginal education.

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of the following criteria:

- students are of indigenous background
- students demonstrate potential in academic studies
- students would not otherwise be able to attend St Aloysius College

The Scholarships are open to current Year 7 to 12 students and provide 100% remission of tuition fees for the remainder of secondary school.

The following fees and charges will be payable by the scholarship recipient:

- Non refundable $50.00 enrolment fee
- Student service fee
- Text book loan fee
- Charges for camps, retreats and incidental items such as ID card and damage to or non-return of library or hire books
- Stationery items, books and uniforms
- Laptop service fee (Year 3 to 12 students) and any excess charges if lost or damaged

The process for awarding Scholarships is as follows:

- Applications must be received by 4pm on Friday 30 April 2021
- A shortlist of students to be interviewed is determined by the Principal
- Students to be interviewed will be contacted to attend an interview
- Students selected for an interview will be requested to bring a folio of their work to that interview

Following this process, the Scholarship recipients will be determined and notified. The decision by the Principal is final and no further correspondence will be entered into.

Further information can be obtained by telephoning the Registrar, Doreen Maiello, on 8217 3223.

Applications are due at the College by 4pm on Friday 30 April 2021 and should be addressed to:
