

Dame Roma Mitchell Justice Scholarships Year 7, 2028

Dame Roma Mitchell (1913–2000) was Australia's first female judge, university chancellor, and Governor of South Australia. A proud SAC Old Scholar, Dame Roma's outstanding and pioneering contribution to social justice and community development left an enduring legacy. Today in her honour, the College proudly awards the Dame Roma Mitchell Justice Scholarship to eligible Year 7 students.

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of the following criteria:

- students entering Year 7 in 2028
- financial circumstances of the family will be taken into account (school card holders are prioritised)
- awarded to students showing potential in academic studies, Art, Music or Drama

The scholarships provide 100% remission of tuition fees from Years 7 to 12. They are offered to students who would not otherwise be able to attend St Aloysius College to undertake their secondary education.

The following fees and charges will be payable by the scholarship recipient:

- Non refundable $50.00 enrolment fee
- Student service fee
- Text book loan fee
- Charges for camps, retreats and incidental items such as ID card and damage to or non-return of library or hire books.
- Stationery items, books and uniforms
- Laptop service fee (Year 3 to 12 students) and any excess charges if lost or damaged

Privacy Information

1. The College collects personal information, including sensitive information, about students and parents/caregivers before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the College. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling to the student and to enable them to take part in all the activities of the College.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We may ask you to provide medical reports about your child from time to time.
5. The College, from time to time, discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes, including to facilitate the transfer of a student to another school. This includes to other schools, government departments, the Catholic Education Office, the South Australian Commission for Catholic Schools, the College's local diocese and the parish, schools within other dioceses, medical practitioners and people providing services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches, volunteers and counsellors.
6. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents/caregivers.
7. In situations where parents are separated, it is the policy of the College to release school reports to both parents of the student. It is also our policy to allow both parents to attend Parent-Teacher-Student Learning Reviews. However, the College will abide by any court orders which prevent the release of such information.
8. The College may store personal information in the 'cloud' which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated outside Australia.
9. In the event of default of payment of fees, the College may refer the default to a debt collection agency. If this occurs, personal information will be disclosed to the agency and you will be responsible for the collection costs.
10. Mercy Education's Privacy Policy sets out how parents/caregivers or students may seek access to personal information collected about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the student or where students have provided information in confidence.
11. Mercy Education's Privacy Policy also sets out how you may complain about a breach of privacy and how the College will deal with such a complaint.
12. As you may know, the College engages in fundraising activities from time to time. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their marketing purposes without your consent.
13. On occasions, information about academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in College newsletters, the SAC Magazine and on our website. Photographs of student activities, such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions, may be taken for publication in College newsletters, the SAC Magazine and on our website. The College will obtain separate permissions from the students' parents/caregivers upon enrolment.
14. The College may include students' and students' parents'/caregivers' contact details in a class list and College directory.
15. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why, that they can access that information if they wish and that the College does not usually disclose this information to third parties.

Parent/Caregiver Declaration

1. In applying to enrol my/our child at this College, I/we accept that she will be educated in the Catholic faith within a Christian educational environment.
2. I/we accept that support of College staff and cooperation concerning school activities is essential.
3. I/we accept that we will abide by school policies as amended from time to time.
4. I/we accept that participation in camps is compulsory and that membership in school sporting teams takes priority over competing sporting interests.
5. I/we accept that the College reserves the right to suspend or expel a student for serious or continued breaches of school rules, regulations and/or policies, including conduct which brings into disrepute the good name and reputation of the College.
6. I/we accept the standards the College sets regarding grooming, uniform and personal presentation.
7. I/we accept responsibility for the payment of tuition fees and other costs associated with the education of my/our child as determined and amended from time to time by the College (except where exemptions/remissions have been sought and granted).
8. I/we give consent for the College to contact any other Catholic school which my child has previously attended for the purpose of ascertaining my/our fee paying record.
9. I/we accept that the College does not accept liability for damage or loss of any personal possessions of students and that insurance for my/our child's personal possessions is my/our responsibility.

Acceptance of Terms of Application

I acknowledge and accept all of the above terms and conditions and I declare that all of the information provided in this application is, to the best of my knowledge, true and accurate. I acknowledge and, if my application is successful, accept all of the above terms and conditions.
